Subject: Personnel Announcement Cancel Date: After Reading

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Carol A. Campbell to the position of Counsel to the National Taxpayer Advocate, Office of Chief Counsel, effective December 30, 2001.

The Counsel to the National Taxpayer Advocate (CNTA) provides legal guidance and counsel to the IRS National Taxpayer Advocate (NTA) and the Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) on the interpretation and application of federal tax laws. The CNTA also works with the NTA in formulating and implementing program policies, objectives and goals; directs and coordinates legal services provided to IRS field Taxpayer Advocate offices throughout the country; and advocates on behalf of the NTA and TAS.

Ms. Campbell has been detailed to the CNTA position since January, 2001. Prior to her detail, she served as the Technical Advisor to the CNTA. Ms. Campbell served as a Senior Attorney in Counsel's general litigation function for approximately eight years before joining the CNTA office. Ms. Campbell received her J.D. from the Marshall Wythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary and is a member of the Virginia State Bar.

I know you will join me in extending congratulations to Ms. Campbell on her selection for this position.

/s/ Richard W. Skillman Acting Chief Counsel
