Office of Chief Counsel

October 16, 2002

Subject: Personnel Announcement Cancel Date: After Reading

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Richard L. Carlisle to the position of Deputy Associate Chief Counsel (Financial Institutions & Products), effective September 8, 2002.

The Office of the Associate Chief Counsel (Financial Institutions & Products) provides legal advisory services that support uniform interpretation, application, enforcement, and litigation of federal tax laws applicable to financial institutions and products.

Mr. Carlisle joined the Office of Chief Counsel in 1984. During his career, he has held increasingly responsible positions as a docket attorney, Senior Technical Reviewer, and Branch Chief in the (former) Tax Litigation Division and (former) Field Service Division, specializing for much of that time in tax matters relating to financial institutions and products.

In July, 2000, Mr. Carlisle was detailed, then reassigned, to the Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Financial Institutions & Products), to provide managerial and technical support to the Associate Chief Counsel. Mr. Carlisle received his J.D. degree from the Suffolk University Law School in 1979, and his LL.M. in taxation from the Georgetown University Law Center in 1983.

I know you will join me in extending congratulations to Mr. Carlisle on his selection for this position.

B. JOHN WILLIAMS, JR. Chief Counsel
