FILE ORIGINAL AND ONE COPY. The IRS will show below whether or not your application is approved and will return the copy.

Notice to Applicant—To Be Completed by the IRS

- We HAVE approved your application. Please attach this form to your return.
- We HAVE NOT approved your application. However, we have granted a 10-day grace period from the later of the date shown below or the due date of your return (including any prior extensions). This grace period is considered to be a valid extension of time for elections otherwise required to be made on a timely return. Please attach this form to your return.
- We HAVE NOT approved your application. After considering the reasons stated in item 4, we cannot grant your request for an extension of time to file. We are not granting the 10-day grace period.
- We cannot consider your application because it was filed after the due date of the return for which an extension was requested.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to give us the information. We need it to ensure that you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of tax.

The time needed to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. The estimated average time is:

Recordkeeping	3 hr., 35 min.
Learning about the law or the form	6 min.
Preparing and sending the form to the IRS	10 min.

If you have comments concerning the accuracy of these time estimates or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Internal Revenue Service, Attention: Tax Forms Committee, PC:FP, Washington, DC 20224. DO NOT send the tax form to this address. Instead, see Where To File below.

Item To Note.—Do not use this form to request an extension for filing Form 1042-S. Instead, use Form 8809, Request for Extension of Time To File Information Returns.

Purpose of Form.—Use Form 2758 to request an extension of time to file any of the returns listed under line 1, page 1.

When To File.—File Form 2758 by the regular due date (or the extended due date if a previous extension was granted) of the return for which an extension is needed. However, to avoid a possible late filing penalty in case your request for an extension is not granted, you should file Form 2758 early enough to allow the IRS to consider your application and reply before the return's regular or extended due date.

Where To File.—Generally, file the original and one copy of this form with the Internal Revenue Service Center serving the taxpayer's address. However, file this form with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Philadelphia, PA 19255, if you are requesting an extension for Form 1042 or if you do not have a principal office or place of business in the United States. For Forms 990-BL and 6069, file with the Internal Revenue Service Center, Cincinnati, OH 45999.

No Blanket Requests.—File a separate Form 2758 for each return for which you are requesting an extension of time to file. This extension will apply only to the specific return checked on line 1. It does not extend the time for filing any related returns. For example, an extension of time for filing an estate's income tax return will not apply to the individual income tax returns of the beneficiaries.

Also, black lung benefit trusts, their trustees, and any disqualified persons filing Form 990-BL must each file separate applications. And trustees and disqualified persons filing Form 1120-ND to report section 4951 taxes must each file separate applications.

Exempt Organization Group Returns.—A central organization may request an extension of time to file a group return. Attach a schedule to Form 2758 showing the name and employer identification number of the local organizations that will be included in the group return.

Reasons for Extension.—The IRS will grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a return. You must file an application on time and show reasonable cause why the return cannot be filed by the due date. Generally, we will consider the application based on your efforts to fulfill the filing requirements, rather than on the convenience of your tax return preparer. However, if your tax return preparer is not able to complete the return by the due date for reasons beyond his or her control or, in spite of reasonable efforts, you are not able to get professional help in time to file, the IRS will generally grant the extension.

Caution: If an extension is granted and the IRS later determines that the statements made on this form are false and misleading, the extension is null and void. You will be subject to the late filing penalty explained below.

Extension Period.—Generally, we will not grant an extension of time for more than 90 days unless sufficient need for an extended period is clearly shown. The extension may not be for more than 6 months, except for taxpayers who are abroad.

Filing Your Tax Return.—You may file your tax return any time before the extension of time is up.

Interest.—Interest is charged on any tax not paid by the regular due date of the return from the due date until the tax is paid. It will be charged even if you have been granted an extension or have shown reasonable cause for not paying on time.

Late Payment Penalty.—Generally, a penalty of 1/2 of 1% of any tax not paid by the due date is charged for each month or part of a month that the tax remains unpaid. The penalty cannot exceed 25% of the amount due. The penalty will not be charged if you can show reasonable cause for not paying on time.

Late Filing Penalty.—A penalty is charged if the return is filed after the due date (including extensions) unless you can show reasonable cause for not filing on time. The penalty is 5% of the tax not paid by the regular due date (even if an extension of time to pay has been granted) for each month or part of a month that the return is late, up to a maximum of 25% of the unpaid tax. For an income tax return filed more than 60 days late, the minimum penalty is $100 or the balance of the tax due on the return, whichever is smaller.

Different late filing penalties apply to information returns. See the specific form instructions for details.

Specific Instructions

Address.—If your address is outside the United States, or its possessions or territories, enter the information on the line for "City, town or post office, state, and ZIP code" in the following order: city, province or state, postal code, and the name of the country. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Note: If your mailing address has changed since you filed your last return, use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. A new address shown on Form 2758 will not update your record. To order Form 8822, call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

Line 1.—Check the box for the form for which you are requesting an extension. You must file a separate Form 2758 for each return. Check only one box. Use Form 2758 for estates that file Form 1041, U.S. Income Tax Return for Estates and Trusts. Trusts that file Form 1041 must use Form 8736 to apply for an extension.

Line 4.—Describe in detail the reasons causing delay in your filing the return. We cannot approve applications that give incomplete reasons, such as "illness" or "practitioner too busy," without adequate explanations. If a request for an extension is made for no important reason but only to gain time, we will deny both the extension request and the 10-day grace period.

Line 5a.—See the specific form and form instructions to estimate the amount of the tentative tax, reduced by any nonrefundable credits. If you expect this amount to be zero, enter -0-.

Line 5c. Balance Due.—Form 2758 does not extend the time to pay tax. To avoid interest and penalties, send the full balance due with Form 2758.

Note: If you are requesting an extension of time to file Form 990-T, do not send a payment with Form 2758. Instead, deposit the payment with Form 8109, Federal Tax Deposit Coupon. If you are requesting an extension of time to file Form 990-PF or 1042, see the deposit rules in the instructions for Form 990-PF or 1042 to determine whether payment must be made with a coupon or may be made with Form 2758.
